September 2023
Employee of the Month
Kristine Maki

Kristine Maki has worked at L'Anse Area Schools for the past 2 years. She is a Social Worker in the C. J. Sullivan Elementary School. Kristine was nominated for employee of the month due to her dedication to our school and her caring attitude. She is always willing to help out wherever she can. She takes on challenges with a smile and is a calming presence. Kristine has done a fantastic job heading up the WatchDOGS Program which encourages parent involvement in our school. She has also been assisting with organizing the Parent Cafe program that is upcoming in our community and is an active member of the PTO. Kristine serves on the school's Behavior Health Assessment Team that strives to recognize warning signs of students who need additional assistance to be successful in school and also works to monitor student absences and promote school attendance. Kristine lives in L'Anse with her partner and four children. Her hobbies include bowling and spending time outdoors. We greatly appreciate Kristine being a part of our team at L'Anse Area Schools!
